

Dear Parents,

Laura's House of Stories came to your child's day care for a fun and exciting story time. Our story theme today was "Picnics". No picnic is complete without a full army of ants, therefore we began our story time with Ant Annie munching on all the picnic food.

The main entrée for our picnic today was peanut butter. Your children were involved in stories, games, songs, and crafts relating to familiar lunch activities with peanut butter sandwiches being our number one choice of foods to munch on. Of course the number one treat to go along with our picnic was ice cream which we also touched on today.

Some of the books we looked at today along with others you may want to share with your children are:

The Giant Jam Sandwich by John Vernon Lord
Peanut Butter and Jelly by Nadine Bernard Westcott
Curious George goes to an Ice Cream Shop by Margaret Rey
Sam's Sandwich by David Pelham
The Biggest Sandwich Ever by Rita Golden Gelman

We had a lot of fun with our story theme today, ants and all. It's great to be back with the kids again after our summer break. We look forward to many more exciting story times with your children this year.

Thank you,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Amy". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned below the printed text "Thank you,".